Biography

Alexandria Marcou is a solicitor specialising in serious and complex criminal defence. She joined Lloyds PR Solicitors in July 2017 and is a qualified Court Duty Solicitor and Police Station Accredited Representative. She represents clients throughout the criminal justice process and has conduct of substantial Crown Court cases involving homicide, serious violence, organised crime, fraud and multi-handed conspiracies. Alexandria has particular experience in complex medical and expert evidence, extensive digital material, telecommunications data, ANPR, CCTV and financial records. She works closely with leading King's Counsel, junior counsel and expert witnesses to ensure cases are prepared strategically and robustly from the outset. She also supervises a team of paralegals, overseeing case preparation and client care.
