Biography

Ihan is a paralegal at Lloyds PR Solicitors, having joined the firm in 2025. He works in the Crown Court Department, where he supports senior solicitors across a broad spectrum of criminal law, including complex crime, drug offences, and high-value vehicle theft conspiracies. An aspiring solicitor, Ihan holds an LLB from the University of Surrey and a Master's degree from the University of Law. He has successfully completed the Solicitors Qualifying Examination and is currently working towards his police station accreditation.
