Biography

Natalija is a member of our administrative team at Lloyds PR. She began her career with the firm in September 2025 to help with mainly Lithuanian and Russian speaking clients. Natalija is fluent in the Lithuanian language and Russian is her first language. Due to her bilingual skills, she has been able to help solicitors with different cases. Natalija also helps reception when needed. She has spent time working with law and telecoms firms in the past and really enjoys working in a fast paced environment.
