Biography

Oliver has practiced as a Solicitor both in London and the North East of England.

Oliver has experience in dealing with criminal offences across the spectrum. Oliver's primary practice as a solicitor focuses around Crown Court litigation. He regularly acts for clients charged with serious assaults, drugs supply offences, firearms matters, serious sexual assaults and human trafficking.

In addition to his wide-ranging practice in Crown Court litigation, Oliver also maintains a thriving magistrates court practice and regularly secures impressive outcomes for clients who have been charged with a range of offences including but not limited to road traffic offences, drink driving, harassment, domestic violence and drugs offences. He is an experienced magistrates court advocate who regularly cross examines complainants and witnesses in the most sensitive of cases.

Oliver also regularly attends police stations across London and the South East to represent his clients detained in police custody upon request.
