Biography

Summer is a member of our administrative support team at Lloyds PR. She began her career with the firm in August 2013 as an apprentice, working towards a qualification in business and administration. After successfully completing her apprenticeship, Summer was offered a full-time position with the firm. In her current role, Summer provides vital support to our barristers, assisting with daily operations and contributing to the seamless functioning of the firm. She is also actively pursuing her professional development, currently studying for the CPQ Foundation Stage with CILEX.
